

Course Title: Indian Legal History
Course Code: IL-C-105

Course Objective: This course is designed to offer the students with following objectives:

1. To develop an understanding of the evolution of the modern legal system in India.
2. To know about the establishment of East India Company, Surat Factory, early charters, Administration of justice in Madras, Bombay and Calcutta, Adalat system, Judicial reforms by Warren Hastings, Cornwallis etc., Establishment of Mayor's Court, Recorders court, Supreme court, High courts and the Federal court of India, Development of Criminal Law, Codification of laws, Law Commissions etc.

Course Outcome: The course will enable the students:

1. To gain elementary knowledge of early legal developments
2. To attain knowledge about the constitution and establishment of various courts in India
3. To know the historical development of laws, including personal laws.