

Course Title: English Communication Skills
Course Code: IL-C-201

Course Objective: The learning objective of this course is to make the learners develop knowledge, skills and judgement around human language that facilitate their ability to interact and work collaboratively with others. It aims to develop students' oral communicative activities from informal interaction to formal presentations. It also develops learners writing skills and expression of thought. It even provides opportunities to explore ideas.

Course Outcome: After completing the course, the learners will enhance their ways of communication. They will excel in every aspect of formal as well as informal interactions. With a more profound understanding of communicative skills, students will have an influential personality while engaging in any of the four types of communication, viz speaking, writing, listening or reading. The last part of the course, which is a literature part, will open the ways for the new ideas in students' minds and guide them on how to share their own.
