

Course Title: Constitutional Law - I
Course Code: IL-C-304

Course Objective: The learning objectives of this course are:

1. The nature and salient features of the Indian Constitution
2. The parliamentary and Presidential form of Government.
3. The powers and position of President of India.
4. The parliamentary privileges and relationship between privileges and Fundamental Rights.
5. The doctrine of Collective Responsibility.
6. The federal principles of the Indian Constitution.
7. The rules of interpretation of various lists of Schedule VII of the Constitution.
8. The special status of the erstwhile State of Jammu and Kashmir.
9. The freedom of trade commerce.
10. The doctrine of pleasure and protections of Civil Servants.

Course Outcome: After successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Explain the nature and salient features of the Indian Constitution.
2. The merits and demerits of presidential and parliamentary forms of Government.
3. The position of president of India in the constitutional sense.
4. The importance and justification of parliamentary privileges.
5. The conflict between fundamental rights and parliamentary privileges.
6. The working of the doctrine of collective responsibility and individual responsibility in a parliamentary form of Government.
7. The interpretation of various entries of various lists of Schedule VII of the Indian Constitution.
8. The constitutional validity of Abrogation of Article 370.
9. The freedom of trade commerce.
10. To check the misuse of the doctrine of pleasure and constitutional safeguards of civil servants.