

Course Title: Family Law-II
Course Code: IL-C-402

Course Objective: This paper is designed to introduce the students to the basic concepts of Hindu Law, its sources and schools. Hence, the syllabus introduces the students to various legislative measures undertaken to bring reforms into the laws of marriage, divorce, maintenance, adoption, guardianship, and the law of succession by passing various legislation. The syllabus also gives an insight into various judicial interpretations with regard to different components of Hindu Laws.

Course Outcome: By the end of this module, the students will understand the laws pertaining to Hindu dharma, precisely the sources, schools of Hindu law. It enables the students to get acquainted with the laws about marriage, divorce, inheritance, succession etc. Students will gain skills of thinking, analysis, written and verbal presentation of argument ideas.