

Course Title: Mercantile Law
Course Code: IL-C-405

Course Objective: This paper aims to train law students in the legal framework concerning two essential branches of specific contracts. In the first three units, the paper offers a basic knowledge of the law relating to India's sale and purchase of goods. In the last two units, the paper affords an understanding and analysis of India's law relating to partnerships. Both these branches of the law will be taught with a comparative perspective.

Course Outcome: After the completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Identify the principles and doctrines that guide the formation of contracts of sale and partnerships.
2. Exhibit an understanding of the essential concepts in law on the sale of goods and partnerships.
3. Determine what rights a person acquires under a contract of sale.
4. Know the circumstances under which a partnership firm can be entered into.
5. Know the rights and duties of the partners in a partnership firm.
