

Course Title: International Law-II

Course Code: IL-C-601

Course Objective: The primary goal of this course is:

- * To understand the historical development of the law of the sea.
- * To distinguish between different zones of the sea.
- * To examine the concept, theories and kinds of state succession.
- * To understand the consequences of state succession.
- * To understand the concept of state responsibility and conditions under which the responsibility can be attributed to the state.
- * To identify the consequences of state responsibility.
- * To examine the law regulating the use of force in international law and its consequences.
- * To describe the principles governing states and the rules of international law in relation to the use of force.

Course Outcome: The course will enable the students to do the following:

- * identify the jurisdiction of the state in various zones of the sea.
- * identify the consequences of State Succession.
- * identify international dispute settlement mechanisms and apply international law principles.
- * describe the principles governing states and the rules of international law in relation to the use of force.