

Course Title: Teaching Practice

Course Code: LLM-Paper I

Course Objective: The objective of the Teaching Practice is to hone the teaching skills of LL.M Students who intend to join the profession of academics. The intention is to inculcate among LL.M students the skills of preparing a class and delivering the content to students in the best possible comprehensible manner.

Course Outcome: Teaching practice makes the students to:

1. prepare a class for students of law
2. understand and explain the analyses of laws
3. understand the method of preparing a class with suitable examples from daily life
4. explain the case laws concerning a particular law
5. deliver content in a classroom
6. respond to student queries during the course
7. master a particular topic before delivering it in the class