

Course Title: Emerging Trends in Private and Public Law
Course Code: PhD-Paper II

Course Objective: The course is designed for research scholars with the following objectives:

- *To develop necessary understanding among scholars related to emerging and contemporary issues in private and public law
- *To develop the analytical understanding among scholars to analyse and critically evaluate the law and its relevance in contemporary societies.

Course Outcome: After the successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- *Explain the meaning and nature of public law and private law
- *Understand the concept of Constitutional law
- *Discuss the concept of Administrative law
- *Define Criminal law
- *List the differences between public and private law
- *Discuss the role of judges in shaping law