

FAQ's regarding Admission 2012

➤ Is the declared result final merit list?

No, the declared result is not the final merit list. This is the result of written component of entrance test only. The final merit list will be declared on 2nd July 2012. The final merit list is calculated based on the student's performance in entrance test & qualifying examination. There is 30% weightage for qualifying exam marks (10+2 for Integrated BALLB, Graduation for PG courses & Masters for Integrated M.Phil / Ph.D) and 70% weightage for entrance test. For the programmes like MBA, Convergent journalism, Tourism Management, Integrated M.Phil / Ph.D Management and Integrated M.Phil / Ph.D English, entrance test has in addition to a written component, G.D. and Personal Interview components also. The relation weightage assigned to these components (out of the 70% reserved for entrance test) is as under:

Written Component: 75%
G.D.: 15%
P.I.: 10%

However, for the programmes like English, BALLB, Urdu, Mathematics, Education, Economics and I.T the entrance test has only written component only.

➤ In case there is problem with my result, whom should I contact?

You can send mail to admissions2012@cukashmir.ac.in and aracad@cutn.ac.in, clearly stating in the subject line the exact nature of the problem e.g.:

S.No.	Problem	Subject line
1.	If part B result is declared and part A result is not available.	Part A result not available.
2.	If the result is not declared.	Result not declared.
3.	If a candidate appeared in two programmes say X and Y but the result was declared for one programme only say X.	Appeared in X & Y programmes but result declared for X programme only.